H. B. Weed Passes Away

Horace B. Weed, local manager of the Mansfield-Ava Telephone Co., passed away Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at his home on Commercial street, after suffering for some time with a severe attack of Bright's disease.

Mr. Weed was born in Simsbury, near Hartford, Conn., Aug.
18, 1850, and was therefore 64 years, 9 months and 7 days old.

Funeral services from the residence at 2 p. m. today, conducted by Rev. J. W. Needham of Seymour and Rev. Joseph Davis of Mansfield; interment in the Mansfield cemetery.

The death of Mr. Weed is a distinct loss to Mansfield. As one of the leading business men of the city, he was well and favorably known. Always genial, courteous and fair in his dealings, he numbered his friends by the score.

To the bereaved widow the deepest sympathy of the community is extended.

Railroad Troubles

The K. C., O. & S. railroad is having troubles of its own these days. An accident last week to the engine they were using put them out of business for one day but they have been running every day since, patiently awaiting the arrival of a less troublesome engine.

As the road is in the hands of Frank H. Braden, a St. Louis attorney, as receiver, application was made to Judge Guy D. Kirby of Division No. 1 of the Greene County Circuit Court for permission to issue $8,500 in receiver's certificates for the purchase of an engine. This was refused, but we understand an other engine will be rented from the Frisco.

Application is reported to have been made to the courts for the appointment of a practical railroad man as receiver.
